The city manager made a report in regard to the conference of representatives of the different communities in the county with the county supervisor on this date.

After hearing the report, Trustee Thompson presented Resolution Number 894, which was taken up for reading, and on motion of Trustee Williams was adopted.

The city manager reported having conferred with County Engineer Reagan and citizens of Tropico, and that the concensus of opinion expressed was to the effect that in the event of a bond issue for flood control be favorably acted upon by the voters, the sum of $75,000 should be spent along the Verdugo Wash, extending from Pacific avenue to the point in Verdugo Canyon where it would join the protection work already put in by the city of Glendale.

The manager of the Public Service department presented a communication and statement showing services by his department to the City of Glendale in excess of what the department receives in payments by the city; the statement showing according to the estimate presented, a net service rendered to the city by the department for which no charge is made, amounting to $10,159.00 per year. CROWD TO EVANGELIST

GREAT AUDIENCE HEARS IRELAND, WILSONS AND LOWINSKY

Monday night was "Family Night" at the First Methodist church Revival Mission. That this kind of service was appreciated was manifest by the number of families attending. It was evident that in many instances whole families were inside the church and Christians.

The congregation was large and enthusiastic. The singing, led by the large chorus, was contagious and rolled up in great waves of melody.

Evangelist Ireland took as his subject the "Twenty-Third Psalm." In his own Irish-Missouri way he brought its messages to the homes and individual lives. In touching on the multitudinous duties of women in the home he said, "Some of you men who carry a grouch ought to exchange jobs with your wives for a little while, then you would appreciate their task better. You would also love them more. This message promises rest in the thousand-and-one petty, and often annoying things of the home. Quit your grouching and get some of the cheer of Christianity in your lives. You talk about your orders, your Masons, Oddfellows, Elks and Buzzards, I tell you men, unless God gets into your life these, with all their virtues, will not help you. You get into the church but you need to let the spirit of God get into you.

"The home needs the grace of God. The sunshine and the shadows will come. Some of you will 'walk through the valley of the shadow of death;' the loved ones will slip away, and in that hour you will need the Twenty-third Psalm experience."

The evangelist was in entire sympathy with his hearers, and with wit, humor and argument drove home his message.

"The Wilsons," a family quartet of ladies, Mrs. Byron H. Wilson and the Misses Wilson, assisted in the service. Their singing was greatly enjoyed. Prof. Lowinsky of Glendale captivated his hearers and held them almost breathless in his interpretation and rendition of "Nearer My Good to Thee." It was a great service.

Tonight will be "Brotherhood Night." All men are invited. Special musical numbers will be given.

DRESS REHEARSAL OF BEN HUR

Mrs. Coral Harrison Sloan is putting the finishing touches on her wonderful spectacular presentation of Lew Wallace's "Ben Hur." The numerous antique, classic dances have been rehearsed and the various scenes have been posed and the speaking parts gone over until all is perfect. Wednesday will be the last dress rehearsal of the great spectacle in the Palace-Grand.

With the assistance of mechanical stage effects a wonderfully lifelike reproduction of the great chariot race has been arranged. This scene alone is sufficient to make the reputation of this presentation. It is cleverly realistic. The music has been carefully selected and adapted to the different scenes. As much as possible old classical music and ancient Jewish music has been drawn on in order to make the effects throughout consistent.

This is a big affair and is already attracting a large advance sale of tickets. It would be well for the public in order to assure themselves of seats to purchase well in advance of the dates, which are Thursday and Friday, March 30 and 31. There has been an out-of-town demand for tickets which has added largely to the advance sale.

There is no doubt that this will be one of the great dramatic events of the season. The greatest care has been taken to select the most dramatic incidents of the book and to connect them up in an artistic and finished manner. Scenery, music, dances and the connecting reading by Mrs. Sloan, whose dramatic ability is well known, are all of the highest order. Mrs. Sloan took pains to select the best talent she could get in the city with the result that the various characters are portrayed with faithfulness and dramatic skill. No one can afford to miss this great presentation.

FLOWER SHOW PLANS

MANAGER IS APPOINTED—PROGRAMS TO CONTAIN MEMBERS' NAMES

Mr. Morris E. Caruthers of 1104 Chestnut has accepted the responsible position of Manager of the Free Flower Show, to be held April 20, 21 and 22 on the northwest corner of Fifth and Brand. The nomination was made by unanimous vote at a meeting of the Flower Show committee held on Monday evening. In securing the consent of Mr. Caruthers to accept this onerous position, the officers of the Garden Society have no hesitation in stating that the Flower Show will prove the most brilliant attraction ever offered in Glendale to the public at large. To the manager, every officer and member of the society will yield unquestioning loyalty and assistance. The program committee chairman, Mrs. Nanno Woods, is planning unique and dignified entertainment for both local and out-of-town visitors to the flower show. The badge committee, Mrs. Walter Ross chairman, is also busy.

Two thousand copies of the program of events will be published about April 15. This program, in addition to the entertainment features, will contain the names of all members of the Garden Society; therefore anyone desiring to be publicly identified this spring with the membership of the society should hand in their names before April 10. The program will also allot space to any firms desiring to advertise.

In accordance with the sustained policy of the Garden Society as regards the Flower Show, no local firms will be solicited for advertisements, donations or subscriptions; but anyone offering to pay for advertising space on the pages of the program, or offering their cheerful assistance in any other way, will be cordially welcomed.

In addition to the hundred and more names of the Garden Society members, all of whom are working heart and soul for the Flower Show, the program will also contain a list of the financial backers of the Flower Show. These programs will not be on sale; they will be handed to every adult entering the Show. If it is found that 2000 copies are insufficient to meet the needs of the crowds additional copies will be immediately printed. April 10 will be the last day on which advertising space can be arranged.—NANNO WOODS, President.

PUBLIC SERVICE WORK

Glendale is equipped with 252 5-light ornamental standards for street lighting purposes. It also possesses 107 one-light ornamental standards. The 5-light standards now stretch out on Brand boulevard to the city limits, making a fine night scene on that thoroughfare. Just now the city is painting all the standards, giving them their annual coat of dark green.

Attention is also being paid by the public service department to the water supply reservoirs, which are getting their semi-annual cleaning. The reservoirs are in excellent condition. They are kept covered and the consequence is that no vegetable matter gets in to pollute the supply. In cleaning them out all that was found was a little silt at the bottom.

BENEFIT SHOW A SUCCESS

The Benefit given at the Palace Grand on Friday evening last, under auspices of the Glendale Garden society, was a huge success, the Garden Society receiving as its share $77.73 cents. The thanks of the society are hereby tendered to all kind friends who helped to make this benefit such a pronounced success. The money received will be applied towards the award ribbons and cash prizes to be given at the Free Flower Show in April.

The prize of $1 offered the child who sold the most tickets goes to Guy Bennett, a student of the Third Street school, 128 N. Kenwood, who sold the amazing number of 148 tickets, aggregating a sum of $16.20. The second prize of 75 cents was won by a student of Columbus Avenue school, Cecil Wilson, 1478 Second street, who sold $6.40 worth of tickets. Newton McGillis, Nellie Lore and Leatha Colton also did well, and will be each awarded a consolation prize if they call at Headquarters, 1111 W. Broadway.

WEATHER FORECAST — Fair with intervals of cloudiness tonight and Wednesday; westerly to southwesterly winds.

TRIP TO THE SHOPS

MECHANICAL ARTS STUDENTS OF HIGH SCHOOL SEE BIG WORKS IN ACTION

In accordance with arrangements made by Prof. A. R. Oliver of the Glendale Union High School Mechanical Arts department, the students of that section made a trip to a number of leading mechanical shops in Los Angeles, Saturday. Twenty-one students took part in the trip. Four members of the class—W. Peters, H. Venske, L. Lanteman and J. T. Beach—had provided four autos which took the party speedily over the prescribed course.

The first shop visited was the California Iron and Steel Rolling Mills where, through the great courtesy of management, the boys were admitted to the sacred interior, which is seldom thrown open to outsiders. For the first time in their lives they saw an open hearth furnace full of molten metal at a temperature of 2800 degrees fahrenheit. From the furnace the party was conducted through the different shops, witnessing the transmutation of the iron through various stages into its final form.

Getting into the autos the party motored to the shop of the Master Carburetor Company, 922 Los Angeles street. There the head salesman gave them a complete demonstration of the working of the master carburetor.

From the Master Carburetor company the boys were taken to the Ford establishment on Seventh St. The Ford company had provided a special guide through the different floors of that establishment. First he showed them all the different processes of manufacture of the different parts of the auto and then had all the parts brought on to the first floor and assembled in 35 minutes. By this time the boys had an excellent idea of how the standardizing of the Ford parts and the accuracy of manufacture makes this quick work possible.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Kellogg, superintendent of shops, the boys were enabled to see the whole plant of the Southern Pacific Railway on La Mar street. Mr. Kellogg personally conducted the boys through the machine shops, the coach shops, the tank shops and the interesting blacksmith shops. They were then given a talk on apprentice work by the superintendent of apprentices.

The boys returned home greatly interested and enlightened by this glimpse of the real work for which they are trying to fit themselves. The following members of the class took the trip along with Prof. Oliver: M. Fishel, W. Peters, C. Story, Lisle Johnson, B. Augymat, A. Williams, G. Terrill, L. Rowe, H. Nye, E. Schuyler, R. Carmichael, G. Oliver, E. Marlatt, H. Venske, B. Platt, L. Kepler, H. Brown, G. Farmer, L. Lanteman, J. T. Beach.

BIBLE CLASSES CONTINUE

The Bible classes at the Presbyterian church continue to be very popular. There was a good attendance at the Monday night class conducted by the pastor, Dr. Edmonds. The theme is along the line of the imminent return of the Lord and Dr. Edmonds' expositions of the subject are most concise and helpful.

The People's Bible class, under the leadership of Dr. Pratt, will meet as usual on Thursday evening. These classes are open to all and many are finding them a source of much pleasure and profit.

FINE MUSICAL PROGRAM

Glendale music lovers will be pleased to learn that Mrs. LeRoy W. Masters will play the difficult accompaniments for the "Carmen" numbers, at the Recital of April 4, given by Norma Rockhold Robbins and some of her pupils. Mrs. Masters is a pupil of Van Den Berg, and is a very accomplished pianist. Miss Blanche Fowler will sing the "Habanera" from "Carmen" and Mrs. Robbins with Gladys Gibbs Sherman and Zetie Duncan will sing the "Perzetto" or "Card" scene from the same opera, in costume with action.

There will also be two numbers from the opera "Tales of Hoffman," including the famous "Barcarolle" duet; two numbers from "Madame Butterfly;" the duet from "Lakme" and the "Spring Song;" double quartet, from "Samson and Delilah." The first part of the program will be English ballads.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, MARCH 28, 1916

END OF MILITARY COMMERCIALISM

When the war is over another contest will be waged to put an end to the using of commercial relations for a military purpose as has been done by Germany during the past twenty years at least, according to Walter Runciman, president of the British Board of Trade. Mr. Runciman says that peaceful preparations as a means to a military end will never again be tolerated by England, France, Russia and Italy. The "most favored nation" clauses in commercial treaties can never again be permitted to be used to the detriment of one of the Allied countries.

This statement of the president of the British Board of Trade is of vast importance. It undoubtedly forms part of the subjects which are being considered at the conference of the heads of the Allied nations at Paris this week. Rigid British commercial competition in neutral markets may be expected after the war.

Germany announces that at the conclusion of this war she will attempt to establish a customs union of the Central powers on aggressive lines. She intends to follow up this conflict with an economic war. It is certain that the meeting in Paris is of as much importance to the world as would be a sudden collapse of the war now being waged. The Allies, unsuspicious of war and almost wholly without preparation for it, have still been able to do a great deal more than hold their own and when they enter on the economic war which is foreshadowed in the utterances of the head of the British Board of Trade they will be much better prepared. Germany has advised the whole world of her intention and that intention concerns the United States as much as does the declaration of the British.

There is no doubt that the economic war that Germany has threatened would affect not only Europe but the world as well and the counter fight which the allies are going to put up will equally concern the United States. Apparently this is a "war to the knife." Britain, France, Italy and Russia are doing their best and will continue to do their best to prevent Germany from accumulating stocks or adding to her wealth abroad. Britain, for instance, forbids her citizens to trade with German firms in China from whom Britain is withholding supplies. The longer the war continues the less will be Germany's chance of recoupment out of the profits of foreign markets. Walter Runciman says this will shorten the war.

According to this trade authority and statesman, the present conference at Paris will devise means for putting an end to German business tactics of establishing political predominance in foreign countries by commercial means. The Allied countries will probably settle a commercial policy that will make them strong competitors against American traders. Along friendly lines engagements will be made with neutral nations and specially with the United States in the interests of peaceful commercial development.

While many look to a period of great poverty and misery in Britain after the war the fact is that that country is likely to be more prosperous than ever. The great sums of money that have been necessarily expended in that country have vastly enriched the working classes who have never been better off than they are at the present moment. The efficiency of British, French and Italian labor has been greatly increased by the war. The tone of those nations has been improved and they have learned many things in suffering that will benefit them in days to come when labor and capital may be expected to co-operate on closer and more friendly terms than they have done in the past.

DEVELOPING INTEREST IN AGRICULTURE

No one can pass through the streets of Glendale without observing the vast difference there is in the appearance of the vacant lots this year to what they presented at this time last year. The law which enabled the city authorities to clean off the weeds on the vacant lots was a most beneficial piece of legislation. It wakened up the owners of the lots in many cases to determine to cultivate them themselves and in other cases to give permission to others to cultivate them. The consequence is that everywhere we see fields of potatoes, alfalfa, barley, kaffir corn and other crops. The unsightly expanses of weeds dotted here and there with tin cans are no more. The city looks neat and trim in most places and it may be expected that the weeds will be kept off of the lots thus cultivated for that is usually the price of permission to cultivate.

While much of this is due to the enforcement of the law for clearing vacant lots a great deal of it is due to the work of education pursued by the Glendale Garden society, which under an aggressive and intelligent leadership has aroused an enthusiasm over the matter of garden and backyard cultivation that has been productive of much benefit.

Children everywhere are taking up this work of gardening and providing by the labor of their own hands a great deal of the food that goes to help the household living. There is coming on an era of civic garden and lot production that will make every family its own provider in the matter of vegetables. Already many families have learned the vast difference there is between gathering vegetables fresh from their own gardens to purchasing them from a wagon that has been peddling them possibly for days through dusty streets where they keep on collecting numerous varieties of microbes.

Industry, thrift, economy—are lessons thus taught. The city is receiving valuable lessons on the possibility of living well from the cultivation of a small patch of ground. Intensive cultivation is taught and with perseverance and more instruction the Garden society can make of the rising generation a race that will know how to be self-supporting even in the worst of times. Glendale soil is rich in the elements that nourish vegetable and flower life and the gardens of the city should at all times produce both the beautiful and the useful.

Nothing conduces more to the welfare of a city than the loyalty and optimism of its citizens.

FOR PRACTICAL WORK

More than 200 persons at the First Congregational church Sunday evening, in response to the invitation of the pastor, pledged themselves to do something definite for somebody else. Dr. Willisford gave a heart-gripping message on "Helping the Other Fellow." The large and attentive audience was not only entertained but profoundly moved by the stirring sermon.

Three brief passages of scripture furnished the text, "They helped every one his neighbor," "Now that we are strong we ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves," "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ."

The speaker declared that the larger his acquaintance with men became the more he was convinced that what people needed is comfort not censure, consolation not condemnation, compassion not criticism. The people of the alley, the people of the street and the people of the avenue are alike in this respect—they all need sympathy and help. All have their cares, their burdens, their sorrows, their heartaches. The difference may be in kind but not in degree.

Help should be given without hope of material reward. "If ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye?" (Luke 6:33).

"Christ came not to be ministered unto but to minister and to give his life as a ransom for the many." The Christian of today must imitate Christ. The scripture says of Jesus "He went about doing good," so must his disciples.

The reflex influence of helping someone else was graphically shown by the dramatic recital of a wreck at sea. In this case a mother gave her son to help man the lifeboat and the husband and father was saved. "He that findest his life shall lose it; and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it" (Matt. 10:39). The story of "There's Another Man" will not soon be forgotten by the large audience.

Next Sunday evening Mr. C. A. Gummere, one of the efficient county Y. M. C. A. secretaries, will assist the pastor. All services are being made evangelistic. Reception of members will be held April 23.

The music Sunday evening by the colored sextet from Los Angeles was much enjoyed. Rev. J. E. Storm preached a most interesting sermon at the morning service. The speaker showed how the growth of the spiritual life was affected by the changes which come to men. The sermon was based upon the gospel account of the healing of the palsied man and the words of Jesus. "Follow Me!"

COMMENDS GLENDALE PAPERS

At the service Sunday morning Dr. E. H. Willisford of the First Congregational church spoke most favorably and enthusiastically in favor of the newspapers published in Glendale. He said, "These papers are clean in their published matter, both news and advertising. They are vitally interested in the affairs of Glendale. They are liberal in their space for announcement of church activities."

A show of hands demonstrated that many of the Congregational families are subscribers to the home papers. Dr. Willisford told his congregation that he wished that every family took at least one if not both of the papers published in Glendale.

Miss Hortense Bright of Long Beach is spending a few days in Glendale with her friend, Miss Carol Willisford, 231 Orange street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Claver of 125 North Kenwood entertained at dinner Saturday evening, Evangelist H. B. Ireland, who is conducting a revival mission at the First Methodist church, and Mrs. Ireland.

The many friends of Mrs. Minnie M. Kinnaman of 240 S. Louise St. will regret to know that she is dangerously ill, having undergone an operation for appendicitis at the Mission hospital Monday evening. While her condition is very serious her friends are hoping for the best.

Mrs. Charles R. Appenfelder of West Seventh street motored to her ranch, near Chatsworth Park, Sunday, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Newbill of Los Angeles, who are spending a few weeks at the Appenfelder ranch. Mrs. Louise Purnell accompanied Mrs. Appenfelder on this delightful trip up into the mountains.

GLENDALE FOOTHILLS

Mr. W. E. Hewitt, proprietor and manager of the Glendale Laundry, has made arrangements for the opening of his new Los Angeles branch April 1. Mr. and Mrs. Hartley of Ninth and Brand, who have had considerable experience in the laundry business, will be in charge of the new establishment. They will move to Los Angeles to the neighborhood of Seventh and Burlington, where the new branch is to be located.

Mrs. W. P. Thompson of Grand View avenue is entertaining the Foothills Lawn Tennis club, at the Brand tennis court. There is a large concourse of the members of the club and several interesting doubles and singles have been arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Toll are hoping to have their lawn tennis court open for use within a week. The work of constructing the court has been heavier than was expected on account of the steep grade of the hill.

The Mothers' Reading Circle, in connection with the course arranged by the United States Department of Education, meets Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Kenneth Road. The circle will take up the reading of Elizabeth Harrison's "Misunderstood Children." Mrs. Toll is anxious that all mothers who would like to attend these meetings should know that her auto meets the street car which leaves Broadway and Brand for North Glendale at 10:30 a. m. and takes all those who arrive by that car from the terminus to Mrs. Toll's residence on Kenneth road, thus saving them a long walk. Everyone is welcome at the meetings.

SHERER CORRECTS STATEMENT

EDITOR NEWS:—

As it is a matter of interest to the people of Glendale and not to myself only, will you please allow me to contradict a statement being made by certain persons, to the effect that the City Clerk is in his office only four hours a day?

For more than a year past the clerk has been in his office from 8 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. and from 3 to 5 p. m. or later; Saturday afternoons, Sundays and holidays excepted. During his absence the business of the office is well taken care of and when it becomes necessary for the welfare of the public service to devote more time to the work he is ready to do so.

J. C. SHERER, City Clerk.
Glendale, March 28th, 1916.

JUNIOR GIRLS IN "THE BURGLARS"

And now come five of the prettiest of the Junior girls of the Glendale Union High school, who are to appear in the amusing farce, "The Burglars." This delightful little skit will be given in the auditorium of the high school, Wednesday afternoon at 2:15, or to be strictly proper, at "eighth period."

The girls who assume the various characters in the farce are Miss Jeannette McLennon, Miss Evangeline Hunchberger, Miss Katherine Renshaw, Miss Helen Hardin and Miss Margaret Boucher. "The Burglars" will be given for the benefit of the class, to help swell the class treasury, and every dime, every ten cent piece, two nickels and then ten pennies, any number of cents, just so they equal ten cents, will be accepted at the door, for the fun of seeing "The Burglars." Not only will the student body of the High School be there with their bright and shiny 10 cents, but all of the fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers, uncles, aunts, cousins and friends—all, will be there to enjoy the farce and lend encouragment to the five star actors and to swell the class funds.

OBITUARY

Rev. Henry Goodsell, a retired minister of the Methodist Episcopal church, conducted brief but impressive funeral services in the Scovern-Letton-Frey Undertaking parlors for Mrs. Zellie Louise Bathrick, Monday morning at eleven o'clock. The funeral services were private, only the relatives and a few of the most intimate friends being in attendance. Following the reading of the 103rd Psalm by Rev. Goodsell, a beautiful memoriam was given by this friend and neighbor, in which comfort and sweet peace were spoken to the bereaved loved ones of Mrs. Bathrick's family and to the sorrowing friends.

At the conclusion of the services the remains were conveyed to the Los Angeles crematory, where cremation closed forever all that was mortal of this dear, good woman.

Mrs. Zellie Louise Bathrick was born in Goshen, Ohio, in the year 1852, and was, at the time of her death, 63 years of age. She was married at the age of 17 years, and went, with her husband, to Winneflago City, Minn., to reside, where Mr. Bathrick's business called him.

Three children were born to this union—two sons and one daughter, Mrs. Marguerite Hezmelhalch, whose residence is in Glendale, California. The two sons reside, one in his native state, Minnesota, the other in Seattle, Washington.

Mrs. Bathrick, with her young daughter, came to California in 1903 to make her permanent home, residing for several years in Los Angeles, until she purchased her home on Palmer avenue, Tropico, where she has resided since, respected and beloved by all who were fortunate enough to come within the circle of her inner life.

She was of a sunny, bright disposition, giving out smiles and pleasant words to all with whom she came in touch—making many friends through her magnetic personality and optimistic character.

She was of a social nature, and was a member of Palestine Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Minneapolis, Minnesota; also a member of the "Zurah Ladies," the auxiliary branch of the "Shrine," and, although a resident of California for so many years, she still retained her membership in those orders in Minnesota.

Mrs. Bathrick's health began to fail in the early autumn, but as she had always been so well and optimistic her relatives and friends felt but little alarm—until after the holidays, when it became apparent to all that her heart was so badly affected that relief could only come when life's work was completed, and though relatives and friends sought bravely for her restoration she was called to the Great Beyond on the morning of March 26, leaving all cares, pains and sorrows behind, resting at last, in that long and dreamless sleep that knows no waking.

She leaves her daughter, sons, a dearly beloved sister, Mrs. Annie Gollaw of Owensmouth; niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Saulsbury of Minnesota, and countless friends to mourn her loss, with but sweet memories of her faithfulness and love to cheer.

IT IS OFTEN SAID

THAT A CREDIT ACCOUNT BREEDS EXTRAVAGANCE—THAT PEOPLE WHO HAVE A CHARGE ACCOUNT AT A GROCERY SPEND MORE THAN IF THEY PAID CASH

BUT IS IT TRUE?

Did you ever stop to think that practically all wealthy people use credit? They could just as well spend cash and save money, if it were really true that by so doing they could really save. However, they use credit on account of its convenience and to insure service. When cash is paid for an article and you carry it home the transaction is usually ended. When you buy on credit, if the merchandise is unsatisfactory, the adjustment can be made in a manner far more advantageous to the patron.

IF YOU DESERVE CREDIT

This store will sell you groceries. In fact we do more. We carry the balance you owe over on each sales slip. This system of helping you keep your accounts is a constant reminder of what you are spending and makes it easy for you to curtail purchases whenever necessary.

Try this plan for two weeks or a month. Secure the so-called advantage of cash-buying and receive the service and convenience of a charge account.

BE YOUR OWN JUDGE AS TO WHETHER A CASH OR A CREDIT SYSTEM IS THE MORE SATISFACTORY

Remember this store carefully fills your orders with the BEST in Pure Foods the market affords and PROMPTLY DELIVERS to any part of the city.

den that belongs exclusively to the pupils of the Cerritos Street school. It is no uncommon sight to see the pupils hoeing, irrigating or weeding in this favored spot that lies directly south of the school. Every vegetable that grows finds ready and willing hands, a fine soil, water and sunshine for its successful growth, in the children's garden.

Principal Kennedy of the school has instilled a wonderful enthusiasm in his pupils for successful gardening and boys and girls who hitherto were careless and listless respecting this study are now wide-awake, up and doing, with a vim and zest, with the result that the school garden is in a most flourishing condition, and producing some excellent vegetables.

Owing to the nightly rehearsals of the Tropico Choral club, for the presentation of "Ben Hur," Thursday evening, the regular meeting of the Round Table Girls, which was to have been held at the home of Miss Katherine Hobbs, 600 N. Central avenue, has been postponed. Miss Katherine Hobbs is accompanist for the cantata, while her talented sister, Miss Dorothy Hobbs, will be the mezzo soprano in the cantata.

Many are the friends of Mrs. Charles A. Barker, president of the Tropico Thursday club, who will regret to learn that she sustained a broken arm Monday morning, while cranking her automobile. Dr. Mabry was summoned and after attending the injured member, applied the X-ray, which developed the fact that Mrs. Barker suffered a compound colle's fracture of her arm.

Beautiful and deeply impressive were the funeral services of Louis Baker, the nineteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baker, which were held at the family residence, 315 West Cypress street, Monday afternoon.

Rev. Don Ford, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church was assisted by Rev. Henry Goodsell and each spoke words of comfort and hope to the deeply bereaved parents, sisters and brothers. Dr. P. O. Lucas and Will Marple sang "Jesus Leads" very impressively. A quartette composed of Mrs. Fanny Marple, Mrs. Hattie Boring, Dr. P. O. Lucas and Will Marple sang "Sometime We'll Understand." At the conclusion of the services the funeral cortege wended slowly to Forest Lawn cemetery and there beneath a mound of many beautiful flowers and floral emblems, all that was mortal of this manly Christian boy was laid lovingly and tearfully away, to await the glad resurrection morn. The quartette sang "Jesus, Savior, Pilot Me" at the grave. The pall bearers were members of Louis' Baraca class and were Will Marple, Paul Lewis, Clyde Phillips, Leaid Spear, Francis Bacon and Will Hewitt.

PERILS OF TROPICAL WATERS

Raising a vessel submerged in tropical waters is dangerous business, according to an account in Shipping Illustrated of the salvage of a gunboat that had been sunk in the harbor of Progreso, Yucatan. The sailors were in constant danger owing to the attacks of "voracious fishes, some of which are more ferocious than sharks and far more determined in their methods of attacking human prey."

Warning to The Public!

Your home dairymen sell the residents of Glendale, Tropico and North Glendale BETTER, FRESHER and CLEANER Milk and Cream than does any outside firm.

Local dairies are under rigid inspection and the public is invited to visit any of them at any time—where outside concerns secure their milk from many small producers scattered within a 150 miles of Los Angeles. While this milk may be bottled in a sanitary plant, it is not necessarily produced under sanitary conditions.

Fresh raw milk, is delivered by local dairies twice daily, within two hours of milking at 10c a quart, while a large creamery which is soliciting business on pasteurized milk at 8c a quart, delivers once a day—milk that is from 24 to 36 hours old. If this milk were not pasteurized, it would not be fit for human consumption when delivered at your home. Special raw milk, similar to the milk local dairies deliver to their patrons, costs 12c per quart when secured from city dairies.

Don't be misled by smooth-talking solicitors. Have your local milk tested in comparison with that of outside dairies by your physician. Abide by his findings.

By giving your local dairyman a square deal you will eliminate the danger of San Fernando Valley being controlled by the alleged Milk Trust which has forced the price of fresh, raw milk to 12c per quart in Los Angeles, Hollywood and Pasadena.

Protect the health of your family and keep the price of fresh, raw milk at no more than 10c per quart in Glendale, Tropico and Casa Verdugo, by patronizing any of the following dairymen, who deliver fresh milk every morning and evening:—

They will put a horse "back on his feed" as quick as any condition powder. And it will not cost you a cent extra to make the test.
